DUTIES: As a Patent Examination Policy Advisor (Legal Advisor) in the Office of Patent Legal Administration (OPLA), incumbent develops and recommends new and significant patent examination policy and helps to resolve conflicting patent examination policy issues. In connection with these responsibilities, the incumbent is responsible for the interpretation of legal precedents. The incumbent researches case law, appropriate rules, legislation and other pertinent information; discusses and presents patent examination policy implications with top U.S. Patent and Trademark Office management officials; performs training presentations on rule and procedural changes to the examining corps and customers; composes patent examination policy memoranda, official gazette notices and rule packages signed by the Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office or other senior U.S. Patent and Trademark Office management officials. Provides staff assistance on special projects (e.g., draft MPEP revisions and training materials) or studies as may be assigned by the Director of the OPLA, or the Deputy Commissioner for Patent Examination Policy, and prepares reports or other documents as may be appropriate.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants must have had one year of experience which has equipped them with particular knowledge, skills, and abilities to successfully perform the duties of the position, which is typical to the work of the position to be filled, and is at least at, or equivalent to the next lower grade in the Federal Service. Status applicants considered under Merit Program Procedures are subject to time-in-grade requirements in accordance with 5 CFR 300.604. CTAP candidates will be determined to be well qualified if they score 90 or higher when rated against the crediting plan.

EVALUATION OF QUALIFIED CANDIDATES:

will be on the basis of experience, training, awards, supervisory appraisals, and the following factors. Failure to address each factor may have an impact upon your ranking.

1. Knowledge of U. S. Patent Laws, legal precedent, and regulations.
2. Ability to analyze, research and make recommendations concerning technical and/or legal problems.
3. Ability to establish rapport with others, and communicate ideas orally and in writing.

SELECTIVE FACTOR: Each applicant must have and provide a statement of when and where a law degree (LL.B or JD) from an accredited law school program was received. (Evidence of law school graduation, e.g. a copy of a diploma and transcript must be provided.)

HOW TO APPLY - SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING:

1. Candidates may submit Application for Federal Employment on OF 612 or resume. The OF 612 can be accessed from the following website: <http://www.opm.gov/forms/html/of.asp>.
2. Most recent (complete) supervisory appraisal and a recent copy of a SF-50, Notification of Personnel Action (Status Candidates Only).
3. Vacancy announcement number, position title and grade level(s) you are applying for must be recorded on the application submitted. If the grade level is not indicated, candidates will be considered only at the highest grade for which qualified.
4. Status candidates who want to be considered under both merit promotion and competitive procedures must submit two complete applications. If only one is received, it will be considered under the merit promotion announcement.
5. Statement of qualifications relating to Selective Factor and each of the Ranking Factors.
6. Copy of college transcript(s) Applications submitted by mail with a postmark that is on, or before, the closing date of this announcement will be considered only if received in the USPTO, Office of Human Resources, within five (5) workdays after the closing date.
